-----------------	---	---

Day 1: 3 January: Arrival in Addis Ababa

WELCOME TO ETHIOPIA. On arrival in Addis Ababa our representative will meet you at the airport. After transfer to your hotel an overview of the program will be given. The rest of the day visit historical sites in Addis Ababa including the National Archaeological Museum, where the 3,6 million year old skeletal remains of "Lucy" rest, which were discovered in 1974. Proceed to the Ethnological Museum, the Holy Trinity Cathedral, the Mercato Market and Mount Entoto, which rises up to an altitude of 3200 m offering a panoramic view of the metropolis. Overnight in 4-star hotel.

Day 2: 4 January: Fly Bahir Dar, Blue Nile Falls

After breakfast fly to Bahir Dar, a small town on the southern shore of Lake Tana. The lake is the source of the Blue Nile and the largest lake in Ethiopia. Thirty of its thirty-seven islands host churches and monasteries of considerable historical and cultural interest. After refreshment, take a boat trip on Lake Tana to visit two of the most accessible and representative monasteries, Ura Kidane Mehret and Azwa Maryam, which still serve their original function. In the afternoon, visit the impressive Blue Nile Falls, locally known as Tiss Isat or 'Smoke of Fire'. The Fall is in the small town of Tiss Abay, 30 Kms from Bahir Dar and then walk about 20-30 minutes to reach the best viewpoint of the falls.

Day 3: 5 January: Drive to Gondar

On the 180 km long drive to Gondar you experience a typical Ethiopian-African landscape - wide grazing land, hilly mountains and numerous farmlands. Visit the castles and churches built by Emperor Fassiledes and his descendants, also known as Africa's Camelot. Later proceed to the fascinating Debre Birhan Selassie Church - one of the World's heritage sights. Its walls and ceilings are decorated with scenes of biblical lore and medieval history.

Day 4: 6 January: Fly to Lalibela

After breakfast transfer to the airport for the short flight to Lalibela. The town of Lalibela, lies among the Lasta Mountains at 2630 m above sea level and remains until today a place of pilgrim and devotion for Ethiopian Christians. The construction of the eleven rock-hewn churches is attributed to king Lalibela of the Zagwe Dynasty. Some of the 12th century churches are monolithic, carved from a sloping mass of red volcanic scoria underlaid by dark grey basalt and interconnected by a maze of tunnels and passages with openings to hermit caves and catacombs.

Afternoon visit of the first group of six churches which lie in rock cradles one behind the other: Bet Golgotha, Bet Mika'el, Bet Maryam, Bet Meskel, Bet Danaghel and Bet Medhane Alem. Bet Medhane Alem, the largest one, is built like a Greek temple and its stone floor is so polished by the countless numbers of visitors that it reflects shafts of light.

Day 5: 7 January: Ethiopian Christmas Festival in Lalibela

Whole day attend the colorful and largely celebrated Ethiopian Christmas Festival in Lalibela. The procession starts early in the morning around dawn. Many believers and pilgrims attend this important orthodox festival.

Day 6: 8 January: In Lalibela

After breakfast take a mule ride to the 13th century rock hewn monastery of Asheten Mariam. The church is situated on the top of a mountain at an altitude of 3150 metres. The roundtrip takes about 4 hours. We return to Lalibela for lunch. In the afternoon, visit the other groups of rock churches. Bet Giyorgis, the most elegant church, lies somewhat isolated on a sloping rock terrace. It can only be reached through a tunnel. The group of four, south of the Jordan River, comprise of Bet Emanuel, Bet Mercurios, Bet Abba Libanos and Bet Gabriel-Rufa'el.

Day 7: 9 January: Fly Axum

After breakfast fly to Axum. Visit the historical and archaeological sites of Axum. The ancient city marks the location of the heart of ancient Ethiopia, when the kingdom of Axum was the most powerful state between the eastern Roman empire and Persia. The archaeological and historical attractions in Axum include: the archaeological museum, the monolithic steles and obelisks, the tombs of King Kaleb and King Gebre Meskal, the legendary bath of Queen Sheba and the ruins of her palace. The 16th century cathedral St. Mary of Zion, the holiest church in Ethiopia, is said to host the original Ark of the Covenant. The churches and monasteries of Axum are richly endowed with icons and artifacts.

Day 8: 10 January: Fly Addis Ababa

After breakfast fly to Addis Ababa. Rest of the day at free .

Day 9: 11 January: Drive to Arba Minch

Drive to Arba Minch via Wolayta Sodo. This drive will take you along the scenic farmlands of Gurage people with views of the lush green hills and valleys. You arrive late in the afternoon at Arba Minch. Arba Minch - meaning 'Forty Springs' in Amharic - takes its name from the bubbling streams that cover the forest and the flats of the town.

Day 10: 12 January: Doze Village, Lake Chamo

After breakfast visit the Dorze tribe, famed for their bee hive shaped houses and their weaving skills. Weaving is a primary profession for many Dorze. They are also farmers, who prevent soil erosion by ingenious terracing of the mountainsides. Around their huts they have their own little garden with vegetables, spices, tobacco and enset (false-banana or musa ensete). In the afternoon take a boat trip on Lake Chamo, where you can spot many hippos and a most spectacular concentration of giant crocodiles. The water birds are great the scenery is truly unforgettable.

Day 11: 13 January: Drive Jinka After breakfast drive to Konso where you visit the Konso people, known for colorful dresses and unusually engraved wooden statues, used as grave markers. Continue along impressive land terracing to the village of the Woito people, near the Woito river. On the way to Jinka stop at the Key Afer Market (Thursday is market day), a tribal market, where different ethnic groups gather to sell and buy their agricultural products.
Day 12: 14 January: Jinka – Mursi - Jinka - Turmi After breakfast leave Jinka and drive to the Mursi village to visit and appreciate the very attractive culture of the Mursi tribe. They are renowned for the strange custom followed by their women who, on reaching maturity, have their lower lips slit and circular clay discs inserted. Proceed to Mago National Park. Then drive back to Jinka and continue to Turmi through Dimeka to visit the Hamer people and their village. Turmi is a small town, which is the base to visit the Hamer village.
Day 13: 15 January: In Turmi After breakfast drive to Karo village and visit the Karo people in the afternoon visit the hammer village. Hamers have remarkable hairstyles made from ochre, water and binding resin. They rub the mixture into their hair then twist the strands repeatedly to create coppery-colored locks. This is a sign of wealth and welfare. Hamers are considered to be masters of body decoration.
Day 14: 16 January: Turmi—Yabello Drive to Yabello visiting the Arbore and the Tsemay people en-route. After lunch stop at Konso, continue to the region of the Oromo Borena and visit their village. They are well known in cattle rearing. From their deep ‘singing well’ they carry water to their cattle by forming a long line of people and passing on the buckets while singing.
Day 15: 17 January: Lake Awassa Today we drive to Awassa over the beautiful Sidamo Mountains and through coffee plantations. On the way, we stop at Wenago to visit the Tutu Fella stele field – an unusual collection of carved stones. We continue to Lake Awassa, which is surrounded by mountains and populated by countless species of birds. Awassa is a large city but manages to retain an easy-going feeling, making it a pleasant place to spend some time. There is a bustling central market as well as a fish market. The lakeshores are fringed with lush vegetation where monkeys are frequently seen. Hippos live in the lake - they emerge onto the shore to graze after dark. The lake has excellent birdlife, with many species of waders present, as well as heron, stork and Fish Eagles.
Day 16: 18 January: Drive to Addis Ababa Early morning drive to Addis Ababa through the breathtaking natural beauty of southern Ethiopia. Afternoon attend the eve of Timket, which starts eleven days after the orthodox Christmas. The Ark of the Covenant is the most sacred element of the Ethiopian Orthodox Church. In the early afternoon replicas of the Ark of each church, are covered in silk and carried solemnly by priests to a nearby body of water. Tens of thousands of believers attend the procession. As evening falls, the priests and many believers participate in the overnight vigil around the Arks until dawn.
